

“UNHEARD SCREAM HOCALI (KHOJALY)”
International Painting and Sculpture Competition

One of the terrible massacre committed by Armenians with the aim of exterminate the Turks was encountered in Karabakh Hocalı (Khojaly), Azerbaijani land, in 1992 on the night of February 25. Armenians repeated what they had done in Anatolia at the beginning of the 20th century again at the end of the century in Karabakh. Again Armenian soldiers with the support of the members of the No.366 Soviet infantry regime attacked the defenceless people ruthlessly on the lands abandoned by the Russians. Khojaly Massacre, or rather “Genocide in Khojaly”, was the place where the words failed for the Turkish World...

From the atrocity in Khojaly to the present, 25 years passed by... No longer Turks live in Karabakh, where the dehumanised ones destroyed humanity... At the back of the massacre the families destroyed, 1 million Azerbaijani Turks who left their homes in the asylum-seeking situation and 25 years passed by leaving the sufferings, separations and aspirations... And the widely world continued to remain silent, watch and belt up in front of the genocide that the Turks suffered and the life that the Turks could not live. The criminals have not been punished, have not found their punishment.

We are organizing the International Painting and Sculpture Competition about “UNHEARD SCREAM: HOCALI (KHOJALY)” as Gazi Education Faculty Fine Arts Education Department and Turkish Art Group with the aim of supporting, contributing and calling in the world public opinion, on the world conscience in search of justice and right, on behalf of young, old, child and unborn babies who are taken away from the right to live in Khojaly because they are only Turks.

We invite all world artists and designers to participate in this International Painting and Sculpture Competition who respect the human right to live humanely through virtue of being human.
